ABOUT THE GUEST SPEAKER

Enrique Morones is the founder of Border Angels and a passionate advocate for Latino issues. Since 1986, Enrique has dedicated his life to the prevention of thousands of migrant deaths that happen on the US-Mexican border. Inspired by his faith, and a chance meeting with Ethel Kennedy (the widow of Robert Kennedy), he has given a human face to countless migrants, offering them compassion in the form of food, water, clothing, education and advocacy.
